Coordinator's Corner

Happy July 4th to all! Hopefully you will be able to get outside and enjoy all the wonderful events scheduled in our area.

Thank you to all the volunteers who joined us for Hands on Eau Claire on June 18th. Another successful community service event for the City of Eau Claire!

Next on our schedule is National Night Out, this year scheduled for Tuesday, August 2nd from 5:30pm-8:00pm at Owen Park. We are in need of volunteers to help with games, raffles and food service. Please let me know if you are able to volunteer for this family event.

Thank you for all the time you give to the City of Eau Claire. This is a wonderful community and it shows that are citizens are proud to live here.

Best wishes,
Feri-Gene

The response to this event has been overwhelming! As soon as I get fleece in, it goes out to a volunteers. Please be patient, I am thankful for all the time you are willing to give to this project and I will get you the materials needed! We will still be taking volunteers for this project until October.

Operation Blanket Eau Claire

The City of Eau Claire is proud to announce the 2nd Annual Operation Blanket Eau Claire, a community service project. We are asking for volunteers to use their skills to create blankets which will be donated non-profit agencies on Make A Difference Day Eau Claire on October 22, 2016.

Groups and individuals are welcome to participate.
All materials will be provided to you.

Four agencies will receive the blankets in 2016:

- Bolton Refuge House
- Hope Gospel Mission-Ruth House and Men's Shelter
- Catholic Charities-St. Lawrence Community Services
- Western Dairyland Community Action Agency
