News Media Report

Narrative:

The Eau Claire Fire Department was dispatched to a structure fire at 810 Birch St. in Eau Claire at 9:25am. First arriving crews found heavy smoke showing from a detached garage on the property. Fire crews stretched handlines, forced entry, and extinguished the fire. Due to the extreme temperatures encountered, several city services were requested, including public works department, streets department, and the Eau Claire Police Department. The city transit department was also requested to provide a city bus for firefighters to use during the incident for rehab purposes.
