News Media Report

Narrative:

At 05:20, the Eau Claire Fire Department responded to a sounding fire alarm at Phillips Science Hall on the campus of the University of Eau Claire. When crews arrived the found smoke and heat conditions on the second floor. Full first alarm assignment was dispatched. Fire was contained to the room of origin with smoke and water damage throughout the building. There were no injuries and the fire remains under investigation but it appears to have started in a printer. Damage is estimated to be $50,000.
