NARRATIVE:

The Eau Claire Fire Department responded to a structure fire overnight in the 500 block of Jefferson St.

The first arriving crews arrived within minutes of the initial alarm to find heavy fire conditions in the rear of the structure.

The fire was quickly knocked down as additional fire crews searched the structure for occupants and continued to extinguish fire inside the residence.

Three adult occupants were home at the time of the fire and were able to evacuate as fire crews arrived.

No civilian or firefighter injuries were reported, however several pets perished inside the residence.

The occupants are relocating due to the damage sustained from the fire.

Eau Claire Fire Investigators remain on scene at the time of this report.
