NARRATIVE:

The Eau Claire Fire Department responded to a report of a structure fire in the 1000 block of Starr Avenue at 12:07 am. On arrival there was smoke and fire coming from an end unit of a storage building. The fire was quickly put under control. There was no report of any injuries and fire damage was contained to two storage units but smoke damage was to two other units. The fire is still under investigation. There were several commercial vehicles near the fire that needed to be moved but were not damaged. Damage is estimated to the building and contents to be $150,000.
