

March 15, 2022

PUBLIC NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that members of the City Council of the City of Eau Claire have been invited and may attend a 150th Birthday Celebration at the Chippewa Valley Museum at 1204 E Half Moon Drive, Eau Claire, Wisconsin, on Saturday, March 19, 2022, beginning at 12 noon.

Eau Claire will celebrate its 150th year as a city in 2022. The year-long sesquicentennial celebration will officially launch on Saturday, March 19, 2022 from 12pm to 2pm, with a "birthday party" at the Chippewa Valley Museum. We'll celebrate 150 years of hard work, innovation, creativity, and adventure. Yes, there will be cake (while it lasts!)

The festivities will begin with Interim City Manager, Dave Solberg, reading the City of Eau Claire "Eau Claire Day" proclamation at noon. A slideshow of historic images, courtesy of the Chippewa Valley Museum, will then be presented.

Visit Eau Claire has a dedicated webpage for our 150th year celebration. It includes upcoming events, 'Five Ideas for Celebrating, marketing materials and more to come through the year!

CJ Marohl
City Manager's Office

c: News Media
City Clerk