

Matt Rokus, Chief of Police

721 Oxford Avenue, Suite 1400
Eau Claire, WI 54703

MEDIA RELEASE

DATE: 01/12/2024	CONTACT: Public Information Officer Ben Hundt
TIME:	PHONE: (715)839-4981
PAGES: 1	EMAIL: benjamin.hundt@eauclairewi.gov
SUBJECT: 24PD00659	 @EauClairePD

Eau Claire Police Investigate Stabbing

Just before 1:00am on Friday, January 12th, 2024, Officers from the Eau Claire Police Department responded to a disturbance where a person had been stabbed at a residence located in the 2500 block of Boardwalk Circle.

Officers arrived and quickly identify the suspect, Altherelle Robbins Jr (DOB:12/31/2001). He was taken into custody, and officers began to render medical aid to the victim until EMS units took over. The victim was transported to an area hospital for their injuries and is expected to survive.

Detectives responded to the scene and have completed interviews with involved parties and witnesses. Through the course of the investigation, it was learned that Robbins, a resident of the address, was involved in an argument with a family member that turned physical and led to the stabbing.

Robbins is currently being held in the Eau Claire County Jail on charges of:

- 1st Degree Recklessly Endangering Safety -- 941.30(1) - Domestic Enhancer
- Aggravated Battery -- 940.19(5) - Domestic Enhancer

This was an isolated incident and no other people are being sought.

Media inquiries should be directed to:

Ben Hundt
Public Information Officer
Eau Claire Police Department
715-839-4981