

ECCCHD Public Health Laboratory Testing	Price
COMMON HOMEOWNER TESTS
Bacteria (Coliform + E. coli) Tests for presence of bacteria. Recommended annually.	$25
Nitrate Pregnant women and infants are most at risk for health effects. Recommended annually.	$25
Total Hardness Important factor in water softening. May have scaly residues and difficulty lathering.	$30
pH Measures water acidity to help assess corrosivity of water to lead and copper pipes.	$12
Fluoride Naturally occurring in groundwater, useful for considering fluoride supplements for young children/adolescents.	$25
Lead May leach from lead-containing fixtures due to corrosive water. Harmful to pregnant women, infants, and young children.	$30
Copper May leach from pipes due to corrosive water. Water may taste metallic and leave blue-green stains in sinks.	$30

ADDITIONAL TESTS AVAILABLE

Arsenic Has no taste or odor. Can be toxic even at low levels. Wells should be tested for arsenic at least once before use.	$30
Iron Water may have a metallic taste or leave brown or orange stains.	$30
Manganese Water may have black specks, metallic taste, or cause stained plumbing fixtures or laundry. Can be toxic at high levels.	$30
Homeowner's Bundle (Includes Bacteria, Nitrate, Lead, Copper, Arsenic)	$80
Homeowner's PLUS Bundle (Includes Bacteria, Nitrate, Lead, Copper, Arsenic, Iron, Manganese, Hardness, Zinc, Cadmium, Cobalt, Chromium, Nickel)	$120
Metals Bundle (Includes Lead, Copper, Arsenic, Iron, Manganese, Hardness, Cadmium, Cobalt, Chromium, Nickel) All metals in bundle can be tested individually for $30 each	$88
Newborn Bundle (Includes Bacteria, Nitrate, Lead, Copper, Fluoride) Free for Eau Claire County homes with a private well and a pregnant woman or child under 1.	$75

Pricing updated: January 1st, 2024