Narrative:

The Eau Claire Fire Department responded to 815 Chapin St. St Johns Apartments for a fire alarm.

When firefighters arrived they were told smoke was coming out of apartment 223.

Firefighters made there way to the apartment to find out that a cooking fire in the apartment was quickly extinguished by the fire sprinkler system in the building before firefighter arrived.

One occupant of the apartment building was transported to the hospital for medical problems not directly related to the fire.

Firefighters were on scene for about 45 minutes.
